Vedette Directory,

UTAH

Area, 100,000 square miles—Population
50,000.

The Capital, Great Salt Lake City, (Population, 12,000), situated on the great highway westward, in the central center of the golden circle extending from the Rockies, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona. The City is one of the most beautiful in the Union, and the largest between St. Louis and Sacramento. Its scenery of mountains is majestic, and its view of islands and lake is peerlessly picturesque.

The City proper is a square of three miles each side, and contains two blocks of 10 acres each.
The streets are broad and well paved, and the level streets, running fine east and west, and north and south, are 128 feet wide, with shade trees along either sidewalk, and living streams in water flowing by both sides of every street, to irrigate the fruit trees and gardens.

The Territory is divided into twenty counties, the towns of which range from 6,000 to 50,000 population.

The Journal on Law

In a few other words it is the chief object of the law of the United States requires. If he will look at the law which is to be found on page 414 of vol. 1. of United States Statutes at Large, he can see what is required. It is there declared that any alien, being a free white person, may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States, or any of them, on the following conditions, and no other:

First. He shall have declared by oath or affirmation, before the Supreme, Superior, District or Circuit Court of some of the States or of the Territories northwest or south of the River Ohio, or a Circuit or District Court of the United States, three years at least before his application, that he has been a citizen of the United States, or any of them, for ten years.

The object of this notice is to call the attention of people to the proper court to which they can make their application. The first oath or application can be made before the clerk, at his office; the final oath can only be taken in open court, where the proceedings must be recorded. In this place, the first oath may legally be made before Mr. Lynch, Clerk of the District Court, or before Mr. Appleby, Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Any proceeding had before the Probate Court or its Clerk, in matters of naturalization, are utterly void, and will prove to be a curse rather than a blessing!

Two Prophecies Falsified.

At the Mormon conference, held in Salt Lake City, April 1863, Brigham predicted, that "within nine months, neither a soldier nor a general would be found in Utah; but since then the gentiles have been gathering to Zion, in goodly numbers, and we have probably as many more soldiers now as we had when the ominous prophecy was uttered."

About two years ago when the soldiers of this command first commenced prospecting for precious metal, Brigham said, that they might look and prospect, as much as they pleased, but could not find it, until the Lord revealed it to his servant Brigham. Read the following extract from Richardson's letter to the New York Tribune, and judge what claim Brigham has to the prophetic of see:

Utah silver leads are attracting more and more attention. At Rush Valley, 40 miles from this city, the first practical working of mines is about to commence by the erection of machinery for smelting. At Cottonwood, 20 miles distant, rich discoveries have recently been made. In the Pariah and Nauvoo, 400 miles to the southwest, near Colorado River, peculiarly promising specimens have been found, and it is claimed that the region holds the richest on the continent. Beyond question Utah contains very rich silver leads, and the abundance of water, convenience to a large farming population and to the great Continental Mail and Telegraph of the present and Railroad of the future, give them peculiar and rare advantages. Brigham has kept his followers from working them, and confined their labors to agriculture—a sagacious policy which has preserved his power and greatly increased the prosperity of the masses.

In spite of all Brigham's denials, the Utalians' leads are rich and abundant, and as the Saints do not choose to develop them, the sinners have taken the contract.

Thus saith the Lord, "As for Utah her prophets are light and treacherous persons—her priests have polluted the sanctuary—they have done violence to the law—they build up Zion with blood and with iniquity. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the prophets thereof divine or prophecy for money. The prophecy lies, it is my name. I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake I unto them, yet they profess to lead upon the Lord, and say, is not the Lord among us? No evil can come upon us! They prophecy unto the people false vision and division, and a thing of naught, and the deceit of their hearts. And because they have perverted the word of the living God, I will bring an everlasting reproach upon them, and a perpetual charm, which shall not be forgotten!"

FROM NEW MEXICO.—The Santa Fe Gazette, of the 20th ult., is received. Her are a few items from that land of señoritas and chile colorado:

Col. J. C. Shaw, 1st Regt. N. M. Cav., died at Fort Selden, N. M., Dec. 27th, 1865.

A series of resolutions of condolence appears in the Gazette, signed by several officers, among whom we note the following, familiar to some of our patrons here: Richard Orton, Capt. 1st Cal. Cav. W. L. Ryerson, Capt. A. Q. M. Vols. W. H. Higdon, 1st Lt. 1st Vet Inf. Cal. Vol. J. J. Biggs, Lt. 1st Cal. Cav.

BRAVETS.—Capt. David H. Brotherton, U. S. 5th Inf., Capt. Henry P. Bristol, U. S. 3rd Artillery, have been promoted to the rank of Major in the regular army of the United States.

These are all good and worthy officers and such the favors which have been bestowed upon them.

For some Spanish-speaking "ones" should consider themselves alighted, we will say a single item more:

Washington, Feb. 3.

Mr. Conness has presented a bill granting lands to aid the construction of the R. R. and telegraph line from Placerville to the most feasible point of intersection with the Pacific R. R. in Nevada. Senator Stewart and Nye have presented resolutions of the Legislature of Nevada urging the passage of the latter bill.

HOUSE.

The House Constitutional amendment provides that representatives shall be apportioned among the several States, which may be included, within this Union, according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed, provided, whenever election franchises shall be denied or abridged in any State, on account of race or color, all persons therein, of such race or color, shall be excluded from the basis of representation. Upon this amendment Bill, of California, Oregon, Alaska, Idaho, Montana, and Nevada, were Raymond, N. Y., Baldwin and Elliott, of Mass., and Jenks, of R. I.

The project of Thaddeus Stevens, on this occasion, was not represented, but the best light by the first report. He said, "though the House had been informed through high authority, that it was better not to amend the Constitution, he himself believed that Congress had a high duty which, if omitted or abused, would be held to account by this and future generations; and all the world in favor of freedom which our fathers made, in the Declaration of Independence, that was intended should be the basis of Government; it Government had been placed on those principles. No amendment such as now required by the issue of war, would have been needed, but at that time the institution of Slavery, hot from Hell, appeared among them, and rather than have no harmony they compromised for what they believed the greatest good. That time had come when we can make a Constitution such as our fathers intended it. Time had come when, through blood, every stain had been washed out, unless we choose to re-establish slavery, which God forbid." He believed the Constitution needed just such an amendment as this, and said Congress would take pleasure in sending it to the President, though they need not submit it to him for approval. It therefore was the more kind in the President to send advice to them without being asked for it?" Here followed the remarks about the "Bulish King, &c." in former dispatch.

The Legislature is now in session, are Maine, Mass., N. H., N. J., Pa., N. Y., Ohio, Ky., Wis., Minn., Iowa, Mo., Kas., Nev., Cal., and Oregon; and of the southern States, Va., N. C., Ga., Fla., Ala., La., and Tenn.

GENERAL NEWS.

Washington, Feb. 4.

The Constitutional amendment, for a fix a basis of representation, will be passed by the Senate, and Trumbull's civil rights bill by the House, both probably this week. The Congressional plan of reconstruction, so far as any majority can effect it, will be completed.

Numerous amendments will continue to be offered and disposed, but the great work stands upon these two above propositions.

Mr. Sumner's demonstration in the Senate last Friday, offering negro suffrage, as a counter proposition to the House amendment, brings him no reprieve, and will amount to nothing.

With the completion of the Constitutional amendment, which Fessenden has will urge from day to day, beginning to-morrow, in order to reach the legislature now in session, and with the passage of Trumbull's bill, it will only remain to settle the test oath and adjust the personal qualifications of southern members. These two measures are as follows: Trumbull's bill enacts that all persons born on American soil, except Indians, subject to tribal authority, and children of transient residents subject to foreign power, are citizens; that no discrimination in their rights shall be made on account of color or condition; but that they may make and enforce contracts, sue and be sued, buy, sell, lease, hold and convey property, and be subject to the same laws and punishments as the most favored class.

Under the present laws this bill extends to every right of citizenship, except suffrage.

New York, Feb. 4.

The Herald's Ft. Monroe correspondent says Jeff Davis' imprisonment and public execution of his crimes have made him irascible and wounded his temper. His attention now is chiefly given to fault-finding and reading the Bible!

Washington, Feb. 5.

The State Department is informed by the Consul at Honolulu, of the arrival of one hundred seamen of American whalers captured by the Sheanandoah, in route home.

Goss, Grant, Sherman, Thomas and Meade, having considered the military bill before Congress, recommend various changes, the most important of which is that volunteers won't have any sway whatever, for incorporation into the regular army. The bill for reorganizing the regular army meets with their approval; also the West Point bill, increasing the number of cadets.

The Cabinet had under consideration the argument of Semmes, for discharge under the Sherman Johnson parole, but came to no definite conclusion thereon.

Until this is disposed of, there will be no detail for the court to try Semmes, and possibly the trial will be indefinitely postponed.

Interesting matter on every page.

From Our Own Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C.—The members of the Union Restaurant, Camp Douglas, D. C., have formed a society to "shoot on the mountain" public.

J. W. Smart, formerly a lawyer of Los Angeles, stole a horse in Sonora, California, and shot one of his pursuers. He was subsequently captured and killed.

Two brothers named Crease, recently from Idaho, were severely injured by the meeting of a buggy on the point Lobos road, San Francisco, last Saturday. One had his arm broken.

Gold Yield of Oregon.—The Duffee Mountaineer gives tables showing that the gold yield of Oregon is $6,450,000. The miners of Southern Idaho are not included.

The Idaho Avalanche says that "Utah has as much need of a Mint as a puny man has of two or more lusty wives and Oregon as much as Owyhee needs more Indians." That about all it knows of Utah's mines and mineral resources. So we don't blame him.

Miss Harriet Lane, niece of ex-President Buchanan, and for four years the accomplished lady of the White House, was recently invited at Westland, Mr. Buchanan's residence near Lancaster, Penn., to Henry E. Johnson, Esq., a Baltimore banker.

The Gold Hill News says the Gould & Curry mine employs two hundred and seventy men—of which number there are nine blacksmiths, one principal and three regular engineers, four brakemen, two teamsters, and twenty-three carpenters. The mine produces three hundred tons per day for reduction, which is taken from three different places in the mine.

For FREMONT—"All Aboard!"—The track of the U. P. R. R. has reached Fremont, and the citizens of that place are felicitous themselves greatly that they have at last railroad communication with the "Big Muddy." But a little while ago, Quantrall was judging in the same felicity, next Kearney, and so on westward till the iron horse of the U. P. R. R. shall pull and roar amid the passes of the Rocky Mountains. But for the present, we notify "all aboard for Fremont!"—Omaha Republican, Jan. 24th.

A "MORMON WOMAN'S P.L.A."—This truthful and thrilling letter, by "A Mormon Woman," which was published in our paper yesterday, created such an unprecedented demand for the paper, that we were unable to supply all who came for enlarged copies for mailing to their friends. Hence the same is this day published, in "Vedette Supplement" form, and may be had at our office, by the single copy or by the dozen. It is a touching exposé of Utah Polygamy and its bondage.

GRAND FENIAN ENTERTAINMENT.—A grand dramatic, vocal and instrumental entertainment is on the tapis, to come off at the Academy of Music, to-night a week, for the benefit of the Fenian cause in City and Camp. The tickets are already struck, and on sale at the chief resorts. A gala entertainment is in preparation, and all that's wanted upon your part, is to add your influence to the sale of tickets and thereby to the success of the occasion.

Mining in Reese River.—The miners in the country of Reese river seem to be doing well. It appears from the quarterly returns of the Assessor of Lander county, which includes Austin and vicinity, that there were 1,276 tons of rock mined and crushed in that district during the quarter ending January 1st, 1866. The several crushings yielded from $32, the lowest, to $356, the highest yield per ton. Forty-four companies are reported, 18 of which exceeded a yield of $100 in the low, and 12 others that of $95, leaving only 14 to fall below $75, to the ton.

Cool, Very.—A newspaper advertising agency in New York, "Aldred & Co.", sends us a full quarter-column advertisement of "crinoline" concern in the east, West, Bradley & Carey, wanting it inserted, and accompanied by the following note:

"Please insert the advertisement of West, Bradley & Carey 3 months, payable as follows: Upon receipt of your paper by us containing first insertion with advertisement properly inserted, Messrs. West, Bradley & Carey will forward to you two of Bradley's Duplex Elastic Hoop Skirts, worth $4 each."

We return thanks to the liberal genle aforesaid, respectfully declining to engage in the "hoop business" at those figures. (Wonder if Abbott & Co., take hoop-skirt pay for their own services!) And here follows another instruction or two that one doesn't forbids. We can't do it—we won't do it—and there are no interesting parts omitted.

"They request that your paper be sent them with the advertisements contained therein."

"In ordering their goods, we particularly state that the height of crinoline found the way to be ladies, who are to be a foot."

square measure of the spacious room, east, west, north, south, and all the way in town. Mechanics, proprietors, professionals and all sorts of people, and tradesmen, both young and old, are engaged in Greenback's "good hotel."

Speaker Colfax's Reception.—The reception of Hon. Schuyler Colfax, Speaker of the House of Representatives, at his residence on 4th street, last evening, was attended by a brilliant assembly, and was one of the most pleasant of the session. Among the distinguished visitors were Major-General Oliverot, Gordon, Granger and McCook, and a large number of Senators and Representatives with their wives. Many of the guests availed themselves of the opportunity for dancing in the lower apartments of the house, and kept up the festivities till a late hour.—Wash. Star, Jan. 18.

Weeks in the Potowmack.—We had all along supposed this place of dispensing Metropolitans was located somewhere in the vicinity of the City Hall; and Judge Clinton there held forth in all the solemn dignity of Saint. We however witnessed scenes yesterday which raises serious doubt on this point. We see a personage said to be the official in question dispensing summary justice in a drugstore on Main street! Somebody had been fighting and this most worthy Dogberry fined one Sombolt ten dollars, and two and a half for costs, without administering any oath taking any but the unsworn testimony of one of the parties to the quarrel.

Glorious Thomas!—In a corner of our contemporary—obscure though it be—appears an "Election Notice," telling it to Gith, and breasting it beneath the walls of laugher Ascalon that the sturdy "wards" of Zion shall assemble at the City Hall, next Monday, and with the suffrages of "manufactured" Americans, elect a set of City officers, conservators of the peace and perpetrators of this body politic for the next two years! Take heart, ob! ye hierarchs, and be lifted up yecast-down Desereters, for the sound of your fears has reached even unto the Ward Assemblies, and the symphony of your flight has been hummed within the Beehive. Let he that is on the house-top take in thought of the ladder, but leap down—to be present at the polls. Vote early, vote often and vote all the time—that the waste places about Selsab may be represented and the "recalcitrant gentiles" kept from carrying the day!

Pahranagat Hill.—Yesterday afternoon three several parties left town en route for Pahranagat. One party headed by the redoubtable Major Peoples and his trusty aid Capt. Grant, was well supplied and furnished with a moderate sized pack train, carrying a good stock of creature comforts, and a small park of artillery. This gallant Major had volunteered to head the advance—a sort of forlorn hope—to clear the road of Indians and other vermin, and to prepare the way for the weak men of the other parties. Perhaps fifteen minutes after the exodus of the military arm, Daniel P. Bell and Charles Brooks followed in a wagon drawn by a span of mules. They carried an abundant supply of feed for man and beast. We believe that a portion of the party that is to be commanded by Joe Todd, left under the escort of Major Peoples. The fellows seemed in high spirits, as indeed they had been for several days preceding, and promised to render a good account of themselves, and as they hoped of Pahranagat. We are glad the restless spirits are gone, but hope they will all return at no distant day covered with silver and gold and spangles at least.—Reese River Reveille, 2nd inst.

A True Poetess Among Us.—It will be gratifying to the lady's friends in this city—her adopted home, to hear how highly her poetic genius and gracious patriotism has been appreciated and acknowledged by the first authorities in the far East. We refer to Miss Carmichael, and her "Ode to Lincoln," which have brought forth the following item in a late issue of the San Francisco Age of California:

Mrs. Lincoln.—A couple of months ago a letter was published in the New York Tribune from A. D. Richardson, Esq., in which he gave some poetry written by Miss Sarah E. Carmichael, of Salt Lake City, on the occasion of the assassination of President Lincoln. Mrs. J. C. Derby, of New York City, clipped the tribute to our martyred President's memory from the Tribune and sent it to Mrs. Lincoln, and received in reply a note in which the latter spoke feelingly of her bereavement, and marked the following lines of the poem as peculiarly gratifying to her:

"Oh there is a woe that crushes All expression with its weight!
There is pain that numbs and numbs Reeling sense, it is so great."

The writer of the poems (there are several of them) is a native of New York, was brought to Salt Lake, says Mr. Richardson, at eight years of age, and has resided there ever since almost absolutely without opportunities for reading or self culture. Her parents are rigid Mormons in bumble life—the father a day-laborer. She is wholly self-educated, and now teaches a small private school. She is supposed not to sympathize with Mormonism. Three poems were published—one in the commencement of the war, for the Union; one on the assassination of President Lincoln; and the third on the origin of gold. All are of remarkable beauty, and attest that the true poetic fire resides in the writer's breast.

ALL SORTS OF ITEMS.

From every church and every shop.
HOLLOWAY & HALEY, INC.

MATILDA HERON, the actress, has turned poet, and given us a good word for her.

A True Woman
Her voice is clear, her words simple,
Combined with meekness, purity and grace.
She can not only sing, and play and dress,
But she can comfort, reason and reflect.
Home is all she needs, a quiet, simple home,
With a few books, a piano, and a chair.
Her loving words can find no worldly guile,
And blend with honey-dew's bitter cup.
There is no pride, no outward show with her,
She might not in a crowd be a jewel.
But she is a true woman, and her books
Are full of sweetness, modesty, and love!
All time all changes find her still the same
In youth or age, her life find her still the same!

What is that which occurs once in a minute, twice in a moment, and not once in a hundred years?
The world has slept.

WERE it not for the mortality that results from dueling, drinking and tobacco-chewing,
the world would have an infinite life.

Don't examine a new book
when you are in a cross mood.
Books shouldn't be subjected to a cross-examination.

If you doubt that women would make good soldiers, go to the opposite side, and you will admit that they know how to bear arms.

A man of philosophical temper-ment, but a number for books cut up, he still remains cool.

What is the difference between a woolly taper and a scaly tail?
One turns his gold into quartz, and the other turns his quartz into gold.

A distinguished physician recommends the application of slippery elm to the bite of a mad dog.
Who should suppose that the bark would cure the bite?

Here is the pitiful sermon ever preached. Our ingress in life is naked and bare; our progress through life is trouble and care; our egress out of it we know not where, but doing well here, we shall do well there; I could not tell more by preaching a year.

Notice,
Solely given that the partnership here before existing between Elbridge Gurney and David T. Beals, under the name and style of Gurney & Co., became dissolved on the 29th of October, 1865, by the death of Mr. Elbridge Gurney, and the members of the firm, having the Territory of Utah; at Great Salt Lake City, in the Territory of Utah; and at Idaho
City, in the Territory of Idaho, discontinued
No contracts entered into with the territories aforand at any time herein in the past, shall be valid unless made with our Agent, F. C. BROWN or with the undersigned. All persons having claims against the said firm, will present them at our house for payment.

As far as the business is concerned, the late firm was engaged at Virginia City, Montana, and shall supply part of our effects in the houses we have discontinued, with our goods as before. The style of the new firm will continue to be Gurney & Co.
